

Fig: MEW officials & UN-FAO from Afghanistan, faculty & staff of DAICT and Sanguine team during inaugural function

DAIICT, Gandhinagar along with Consortium Partner Sanguine Management Services, Ahmedabad jointly organizing a Training Course on Information and Communication Technology Management (ICTM) for UN-FAO and MEW (Ministry of Energy and Water) officials of Afghanistan during May 23 to June 3 2016 at DAIICT.

The training program is formally inaugurated by the Prof. R. Nagaraj, Director, DAIICT on May 23 2016 at DAIICT. Dr Nagaraj in his inaugural address welcomes the participants to DAIICT and emphasized the importance of ICT management. He mentioned that DAIICT is primarily an ICT institute having both undergraduate and post graduate programs in different ICT domain. The Program Coordinator, Prof Ranendu Ghosh briefed the participants on the content and structure of the training program. Mr Biswajit Pradhan Associate Director, Sanguine also welcomes the participants and ensured all possible support from Sanguine. Prof Suman Mitra Dean, AP, Mr Soman Nair, Executive Registrar were present in the inauguration function.

Twelve officials from Afghanistan are participating in the training course and the course duration is of eleven days till June 3 2016. Eight topics in the domain of ICTM will be delivered by five faculties from DAIICT. In addition to lecture in the pre-lunch session, lab sessions are also planned in the post lunch session.