Subject: CALL for (i) Posters and Travel Awards + (ii) PEACHY COURSE ASSIGNMENTS - EduPar 2018 at IPDPS, Vancouver, Canada
To: Sushil Prasad <sprasad@gsu.edu>

Dear Early Adopter Colleagues,

Here are two great opportunities to participate, and share your experience, expertise, and resources with the EduPar community.

Looking forward, another opportunity is to get involved with the NSF/TCPP curriculum revision effort underway, with a goal to enhance the curriculum on the aspects of Big Data, Energy, Distributed Computing, Cross-cutting topics and Exemplars: https://grid.cs.gsu.edu/~tcpp/curriculum/?q=system/files/SIGCSE%20Handout_0.pdf. You may contact any of the aspect group leads.

Also, I want to alert you to a possible third volume of CDER Book Project aligned directly with your Early Adopter efforts - be on the lookout for a call.

POSTERS: As with previous EduPar workshops, we are planning to have a poster session for early adopters to present their findings and recommendations at EduPar-18 (http://grid.cs.gsu.edu/~tcpp/curriculum/?q=edupar).

Toward this, please submit a 1-page writeup at the EasyChair website for EduPar-18 by March 19 on your early adoption efforts, results, evaluation, and travel budget. Acceptance notifications will be sent out by March 22. The accepted 1-page poster paper will be published at the EduPar-18 website. Additionally, accepted posters will receive travel and registration support from NSF/Intel funds (10-15 travel awards each expected to be up to $1500/poster).

POSTER SUBMISSION GUIDELINES: Initial submissions should be a 1-page PDF document describing the work to be presented, and should be submitted through EasyChair in the EduPar Posters track: https://www.easychair.org/conferences/?conf=edupar18

Submissions should be formatted as single-spaced double-column pages using 10-point size font on 8.5x11 inch pages (IEEE conference style), including figures, tables, and references. See style templates on EduPar-18 website for details.

We are also excited to announce the Peachy Parallel Assignments session below. I am sure you and your colleagues will have a nifty one for this as well.

Either submission will be eligible to be supported by Travel Awards.

Best regards and looking forward to your submissions.

Sushil
